Chief, Records Management Staff

Report for Week Ending 18 March 1959

1. Contributions

a. Tangible

- (1) Completed 10 new and eight revised forms; eight forms were made obsolete.
- (2) The Records Center received 193 cu. ft. of inactive records from six offices. Seventy cu. ft. of records were burned, leaving 996 cu. ft. to be destroyed.
- (3) Approved a revision of the Records Control Schedule for FBID.
- (4) A revised Travel Order Form has been completed. Among the major accomplishments connected with the developments of this form are:
 - (a) elimination of 17 "bootleg" forms.
 - (b) Reduction in number of copies from 12 to 9.
 - (c) The use of a Worksheet which will serve as a check list to remind the office of origin ^{of essential data} to be included in the travel order.
- (5) Completed installation of Subject-Numeric Filing system in the Office of Special Assistant/DD/S.

b. Intangible

- (1) Clarified instructions for the use of the Courier Receipt and Log Record for Col. Grogan's office.
- (2) Disapproved a request by OCR that the present Library Request Form be printed on MCR paper. Continued use of the carbon interleaved form now being used was recommended and, since this has been satisfactory, we saw no need for an additional $10,000 for the MCR type form.
